C. H. S. . . . A Growing Institution

Ever since its birth sixty-five years ago, Calhoun High School has been a living growing nucleus of people and ideas. The 1967-68 school year marked a time of accelerated growth. With the addition of the new vocational building and thousands of dollars of equipment — a significant sign of expansion for a high school of 900 students — a pattern was set for future growth in campus curriculum and student body size.

Not only is Calhoun High School itself enlarging but CHS's student is growing with it. He is increasing and magnifying his ideas. His life, both intellectual and social, is also expanding as well as his school. Under the guidance of CHS and the people connected with it, he is learning to enlarge and develop his mind and his life. He is learning to cope and communicate with the growing number of people around him. He is being given an increasing opportunity to participate in the great number of organizations at CHS. And he is steadily advancing in the light of learning cast by a growing CHS.

It is indeed true that in every aspect of an academic institution, Calhoun High School grows.

ADMINISTRATION

Administrators Lay Plans for Expansion of School

Mr. Sam Peek, assistant principal, earned an A.B. degree from Carson Newman College and an M. Ed. from the University of Chattanooga

The many decisions and problems relating to the enlargement of Calhoun High School were uppermost in the minds of the administrative staff. Among those directly concerned were Robert D. Cox, principal; Samuel Peek, assistant principal; members of the Calhoun Board of Education; G. V. Cate, city school superintendent, and Jim Lay, curriculum director.

Principal Cox has maintained the responsible position of principal at CHS since 1959. Mr. Cox participates in various community projects and has recently taken over the helm of president of the Kiwanis Club. In his spare time, Mr. Cox plays tennis, goes hunting, and enjoys reading a little every day.

Supt. Cate holds a B.S. degree, master's degree and a six-year certificate in education from the University of Georgia.

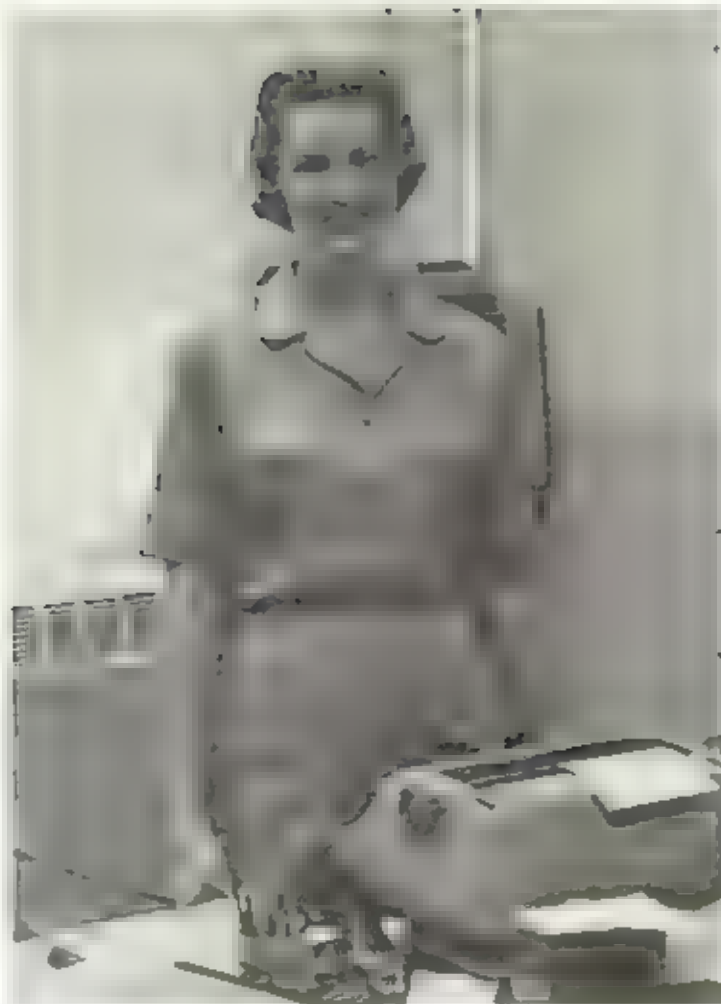

Mr. Peek, a newcomer to CHS, acquired the job of assistant principal. Mr. Peek enjoys reading, camping and working with youth.

Principal Robert Cox earned his B.S. degree from the University of Chattanooga, an M.A. from the University, and a six-year certificate from Peabody College. Here he takes a moment to look up from his work

COUNSELORS

Counselor's Duties Soar as Enrollment

With graduation time close at hand Miss Worthington discusses college choices with a senior.

Students often come to Mex Hall for advice concerning their subjects and schedules.

Curriculum Increase

Miss Worthington appears somewhat amused at a student's schedule change report

Anthony Buttram, clad in overalls, waits to see Miss Worthington for advice concerning a career in auto mechanics

This year, as in past years, students at Calhoun High were once again advised, counseled, and given encouragement whenever it was needed from our counseling staff

Miss Sandra Worthington has served as CHS's counselor and drama-debate coach for the past eleven years. She attended Shorter College where she majored in speech and drama and attained her AB degree. She later attended the University of Georgia where she did graduate work majoring in counseling. She also sponsored CHS's affiliate of the National Forensic League and the Student Council

Mrs. Mary Hill, secretary to the counselor, is new to CHS this year. She served as secretary to the principal at Southwest DeKalb High School in Decatur and is the wife of the Rev. Fred Hill, pastor of the Presbyterian Church

During a brief visit to the counselor's office, Mr. Cox considers one of the many problems connected with the day's busy schedule

LIBRARY

Library Fills Shelves

CHS boasts one of the newest and best equipped libraries in the state. The library fills the needs of the students in all fields, from reference work to fiction to the latest magazines.

This year the library added approximately 1100 new books at an estimated price of $3000. This purchase was mostly fiction because the reference shelves were not badly in need of books.

The library is composed of two levels, with a spacious stairway leading to the balcony and the study carrels in the upper level. Downstairs are the checkout counter, the magazine racks, and the display of trophies won by CHS in many activities, both academic and athletic.

In the capable hands of Mrs. Winona Brooks and Mrs. Hope Prater, the library is operated to its highest point of efficiency. Mrs. Brooks is head librarian and lists reading and her family as her main interests. Mrs. Prater is assistant librarian and enjoys golf and swimming in her spare time. Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Prater are assisted every period by different students who serve as library aids.

Students leaving library pass under the focal point of the building, an emblem showing the five flags over Georgia.

A view from the balcony shows the check-out counter, and on the far wall CHS's wall of trophies and other awards.

Enrollment Increases

CHS students are shown here in the new use of the excellent library facilities in the new library.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

English Department Aims for Higher Goals

This year Calhoun's English teachers united in an effort to try to attain the completion of one of their major goals for next year: To provide courses in creative writing, practical English I and II, acting, play production, theater history, Spanish III and Latin III. They are also considering publishing a literary magazine twice yearly by the creative writing class.

The English department of Calhoun High is comprised of eight teachers — one speech and seven English. Miss Geraldine Legg teaches English IV. She attended Shorter College and the University of Georgia, where she received an A.B. and M. Ed. degree, respectively.

Mrs. Josephine Billings teaches English III and Latin I and II. She attained her B.S. degree from East Tennessee State University. Mrs. Kay Baxter, who teaches English II, III, and IV, received an A.B. degree from Shorter College.

Mrs. Sandra Jackson attended Tusculum College in Tennessee where she attained her B.A. degree. She received her M.Ed. degree this summer from the University of Chattanooga. Mrs. Sue Youmans has a B.A. degree from Southwestern at Memphis. She teaches English II.

Mr. Philip Heard teaches English II and geography. He attained his A.B. degree from Nebraska State Teachers College.

The two newest members of the department are Mrs. Bea McCurdy and Mr. Gene Ziegler. They teach English I and basic speech respectively. Mrs. McCurdy received an A.B. degree from Shorter College and Mr. Ziegler received a B.A. in speech and drama from Shorter College.

Spelling is one of the most important subjects to the senior class. Mrs. Kay Baxter drills her first period class to get ready for the senior test in March.

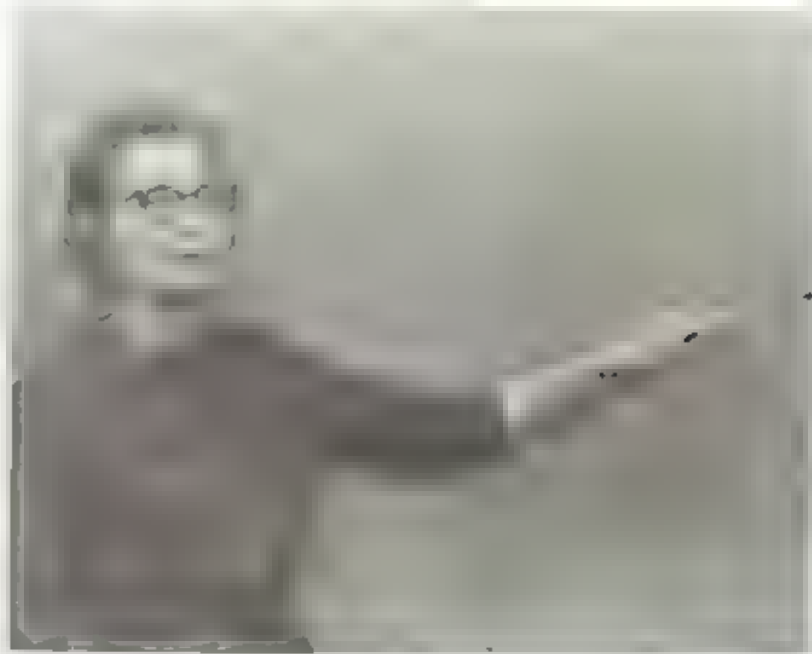

Miss Legg expresses amazement that one of her students can read and write.

JOURNALISM DEPARTMENT

Journalism Courses Stress

Calhoun High School's journalism courses have been most instrumental in helping students learn the basic fundamentals of good journalism.

CHS has a four year program of journalism which is divided into Journalism I and II. Journalism I teaches a student acceptable writing styles of the various media.

In journalism classes this year students learned how to write news, sports, feature and editorial articles, count headlines, and take care of the business side of the newspaper.

Working with the yearbook, students learned to draw layouts, write copy, crop pictures, write cutlines and do many other different jobs connected with yearbook publication.

Mrs. James Hobgood teaches Journalism I and II. She is advisor of the Cherokee Phoenix, The Jacketeer, Quill and Scroll and Journalism I Club. She received a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism degree from the University of Georgia, and served on the editorial staff of several bi-weekly newspapers before entering the teaching profession.

Mrs. Mary Lou Hobgood manages to take a moment from her busy day to laugh at a joke that one of her clever journalism students told her.

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

Students Gain Knowledge Through Communication

Students at CHS have a choice between two foreign language courses. Latin and Spanish are taught by Mrs. Josephine Billings and Mrs. Patricia Hill, respectively.

Mrs. Billings attended East Tennessee State University, where she received a B.S. degree with a major in Latin and a minor in English. She also studied at Carson-Newman College and the University of Virginia. Her hobby is playing bridge. Besides teaching Latin, she taught English and advised all senior activities.

Mrs. Hill graduated from Morris Brown College with a B.A. degree. She received her teacher certification from Georgia State College. She not only teaches Spanish but also advises the Spanish club, "El Circulo Espanol." Mrs. Hill states that her hobbies include reading, crocheting, bowling, shopping, and listening to music.

DRAMA

Calhoun's One-Act Play Cast Captures State Title

The cast of the one-act play breaks into laughter during a rehearsal as they approach Laura's fainting scene. Laura, portrayed by Linda Hobgood, is a shy, crippled girl who faints due to tension

The cast of the state winning one-act play is pictured on stage complete with costume and make-up

For the first time in the history of Calhoun High School, the one-act play placed first in state AA Competition. Drama coach, Miss Sandra Worthington, chose to present "The Glass Menagerie," by Tennessee Williams. The cast included Linda Hobgood as Laura, Scott Croxson as Tom, Holli Hobgood as Amanda, and Jim Purcell as Jim

The region 7AA competition was held at Shorter College on January 20. Linda Hobgood was named the outstanding actress and Scott Croxson was named first runner-up for the title of outstanding actor. CHS then went to Athens where they competed with seven other schools and won first place

The dramatics class has also been engaged in other activities. Many awards have been presented in these activities, which include dramatic interpretation, humorous reading, oratory, and extemporaneous speaking

The magnificent seven: Scott Croxson, Jim Purcell, Julie Richards, Miss Sandra Worthington, coach; Linda Hobgood, Holli Hobgood, and Haley Stephens are pictured with the two trophies they won in the state AA competition.

DEBATE

Debaters Win Top Honors at State AA Tournament

Julie Richards looks over Jim Purcell's shoulder as the latter does research for an important upcoming debate tournament.

Debbie King shows Miss Worthington an information card she will use in a practice debate. The index card is a personal friend to a debater.

Calhoun High's debate team this year placed first in the state AA competition. The varsity team consisted of Julie Richards, Scott Croxson, Jim Purcell, and Haley Stephens.

CHS won a place in the state competition by tying with Dalton for Region 7-AA debate honors at Emory University. The tie was broken by speaker points.

Debaters, under the supervision of Miss Sandra Worthington, captured the trophy for the first place school at the Chamblee Forensics Conclave. This is the second consecutive year that CHS has received the trophy. Participating in the Barkley Forum and University of Georgia tournaments were part of the year's plans.

During the year debaters have added many new trophies and plaques to CHS.

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

Social Studies Keep Pace with the Times

Mr. Bob O'Connor, world history and contemporary problems teacher, graduated from Peabody College with a B.S. degree in history

This year the social studies department has added a new subject to its program — contemporary problems. The small class is taught by Mr. Bob O'Connor, and is concerned primarily with the study of different types of government and all kinds of current problems in the world. Current magazines and weekly news supply problems for debate and discussion.

Other social studies subjects include world history, American history, government and world geography.

Social studies courses were taught this year by Mrs. Virgie Brownlee and Mr. Bob O'Connor in addition to three new teachers who have been added to the department. They are Mr. Phillip Heard, who taught English last year; Mrs. Kathy Sproull, a former student teacher at Calhoun High; and Mr. Kenneth Smallwood, who transferred to Calhoun from Jones County.

World and American history teacher, Mrs. Kathy Sproull graduated with an A.B. in history from West Georgia College in 1952

Mr. Kenneth Smallwood, American history teacher, received a B.S. degree in Geology at the University of Georgia

Contemporary problems class, taught by Mr. O'Connor, studies current problems and their types of treatment for the problems and discussions on various topics

Geography and history teacher, Mr. Phillip Heard, graduated from Nebraska State Teacher's College

Mrs. Virgie Brownlee, government and history teacher, graduated from Lincoln Memorial University with an A B in history

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

Science Department Expands with Knowledge

This year the science department expanded as more students took science courses. A total of six teachers instructed students in general science, biology, chemistry, and physics. They sought to prepare students for the modern world of today.

Mr. Kenneth Sproull earned an A.B. degree in chemistry from West Georgia College. He taught chemistry and general science. Miss Alice Clark attended Emory at Oxford, San Jose State College, Georgia Southern College, where she received a B.S. degree in science education, and Wake Forest College NSF Institute, where she earned a PSSC in physics. Her classes include chemistry, physics and general science.

Mrs. Grace Smith, a graduate of Berry College with a B.S. degree in natural science, teaches biology to her students. Mrs. Nell Mobley graduated from Savannah State College with a B.S. degree. She teaches biology and general science.

Other teachers who teach general science are Mr. Charles Faulkner and Mr. Quentin Hardage.

Gary Bailey and Susan Bell complete a biology drawing. They find that shading and drawing are strictly hunt and peck methods.

Students doing labs agree that busy hands are happy hands

Mrs. Mobley finds it difficult to smile while grading nine week test papers

Kenneth Sproull, new science teacher, instructs students in science and chemistry

Miss Clark CHS chemistry and physics teacher, realizes that good guides for her students is a daydream

Mrs. Smith prepares film strip orders for her 10th grade biology classes

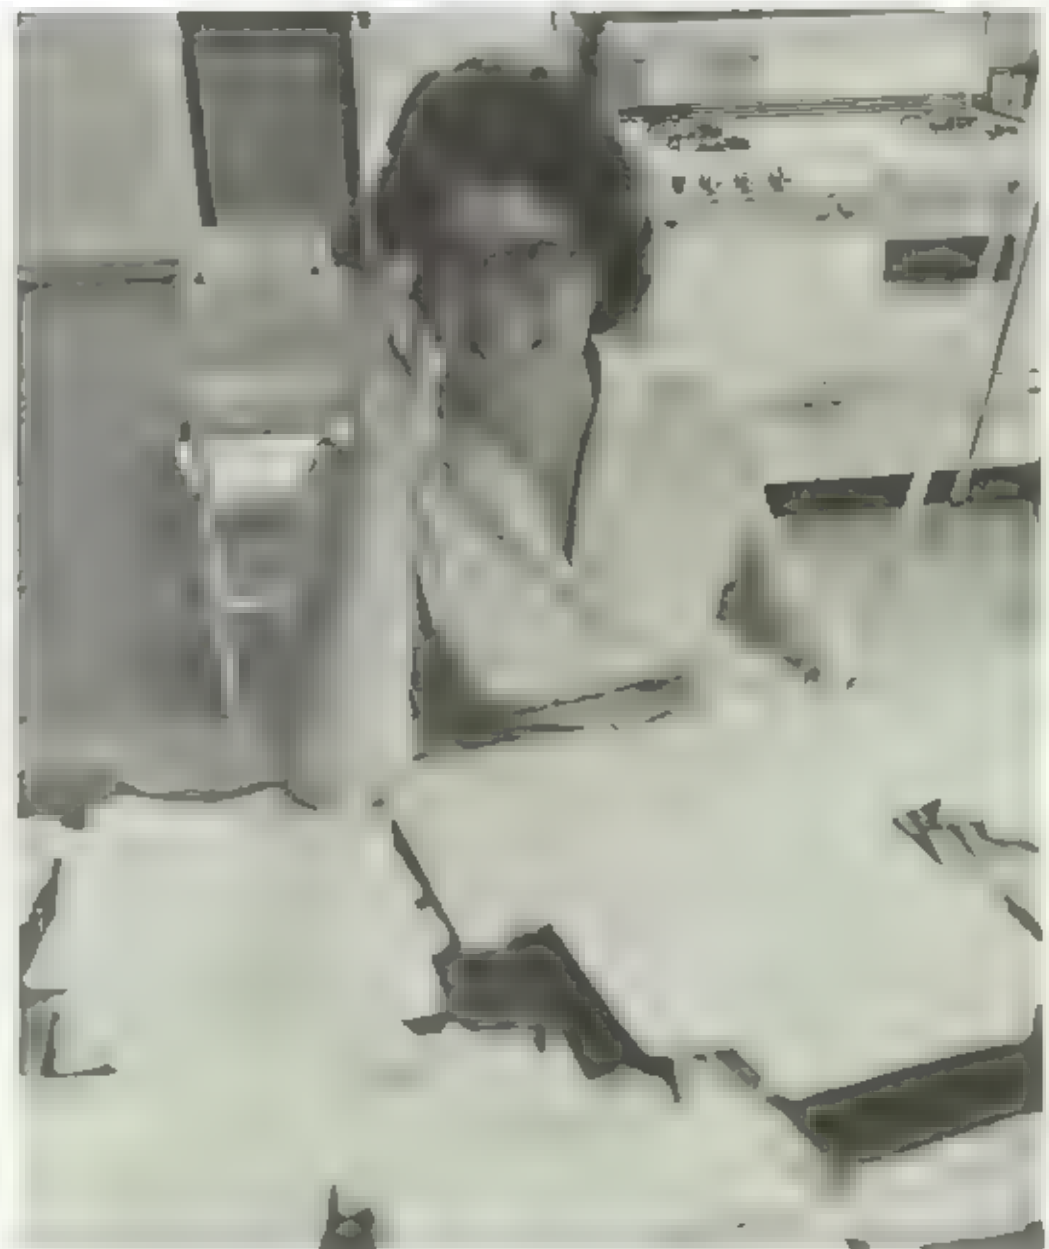

Home Economics Drive

Every young girl learns the values of Home Economics. Here students are busy writing notes for the next lab.

Ronnie King listens intently while Mrs. King assigns the next lesson.

Mrs. Dorothy Reeve is able to bring forth a smile while the paper work mounts on her desk.

Students on Essentials

This year the home economics department strived to teach girls the basics of homemaking.

Family Living is another subject taught in the home economics department. Mrs. Juanita King teaches students in family living, while Mrs. Dorothy Reeve joins her in teaching home economics.

Mrs. King, holding a BSHE degree and a MHE degree, attended Berry College and the University of Georgia. She sponsors the Sr. FHA.

Mrs. Reeve graduated from Berry College with a BSHE degree. She sponsored the Jr. FHA.

Home economics students learn through the practical use of a sewing machine and a kitchen. Students have this equipment at their disposal for learning and preparing themselves for the life of a homemaker.

"You're talking again," Mrs. King occasionally has to reprimand her students.

Charles Wheat is a perfect example of a student. The teacher can't tell whether he's studying or sleeping.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Programmed Courses Extend Mathematics

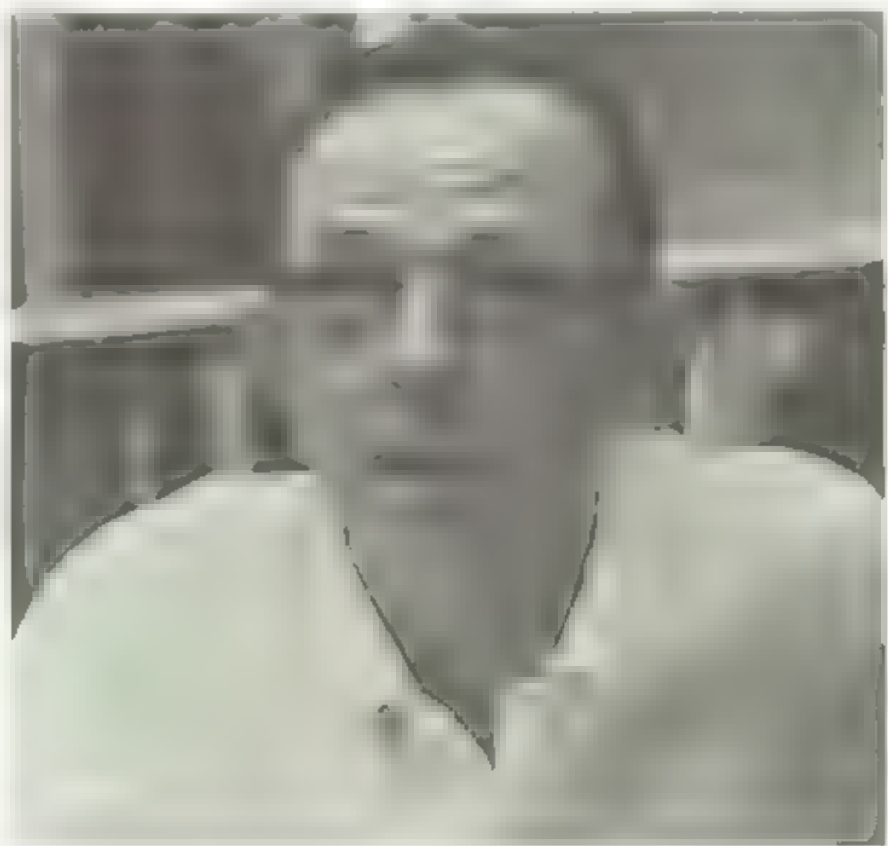

Mr. Gerald Hite explains an especially difficult problem to his 5th period programmed calculus class.

Shown here in the shadow created by his overhead projector is Mr. Frank Hall demonstrating the solution to an Algebra I equation. Several of the teachers are making use of the overhead projectors this year.

Mecia Ables looks pensive as Mrs. Mary Lou Holgood questions the correctness of one of her answers.

It appears that one of Mr. Gerald Hite's students has finally asked a question he can't answer.

Department Curriculum

Calhoun's mathematics department this year again extended its curriculum by use of programmed materials. Any student who wished to go beyond the regular courses offered during the year could do so by taking the programmed courses. Some of these courses included trigonometry and calculus.

This year the math department was manned by seven teachers: Mr. Hamp Alexander, Mr. Charles Faulkner, Mr. Bob Greeson, Mr. Frank Hall, Mr. Gerald Hite, Mrs. Mary Lou Hobgood and Mr. John Woods. The major load was carried by Mr. Hite, Mr. Hall, Mrs. Hobgood and Mr. Greeson, who were full-time math teachers.

Mr. Hall teaches geometry and algebra, and computes registers. He spends his leisure time hunting and participating in sports.

Mr. Hite teaches geometry, algebra, and trigonometry. Gardening and reading are Mr. Hite's favorite hobbies.

Mrs. Hobgood teaches business math and journalism and enjoys reading as her hobby.

Geometry and general math II are taught by Mr. Greeson.

Math answers can be hard to arrive at. Larry Hall and Shelia Gray appear to be comparing their answers.

Math is a subject that affects different people in different ways, as evidenced in this picture of Mr. Greeson's math class.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

Commercial Department Expands to Shape Careers

Miss Ray and Mrs. Bernhard discuss the day's busy schedule prior to the opening of morning classes

Metamorphosis has set in during 1967-68 within the commercial labs. The changes included the acquiring of more advanced equipment and furniture. Included in the new equipment and furniture are IBM electric typewriters, desk calculators, and new stenographic desks. By taking advantage of the advanced equipment and furniture, CHS students were able to work in an authentic office atmosphere. Each classroom can now accommodate 24 students.

Students taking commercial courses received thorough training in such skills as typing, shorthand, bookkeeping and office practice. These courses were taught by four extremely capable teachers. Commercial teachers and their degrees are as follows: Miss Julia Briscoe, Miss Rachel Ray, Mrs. Betty Bernhard and Mrs. Jane Daniel. Miss Briscoe, Miss Ray and Mrs. Daniel all have a B.S. degree. Mrs. Bernhard, however, has a B.B.A. degree.

Charmie Butler confers with Eleanor Hughes about a difficult part of her typing lesson

While manipulating the new calculators, Ricky Roberts finds that one wrong move can bring dire results

Finding an error after you take the paper out of the machine proves to be a horror to Sharon Nicholson

Miss Julia Bruce, shorthand and typing teacher, devotes a great deal of time to planning her daily lessons

Concert

Through long hours of practice the Calhoun High Concert Band and Glee Club succeeded in completing a rewarding year.

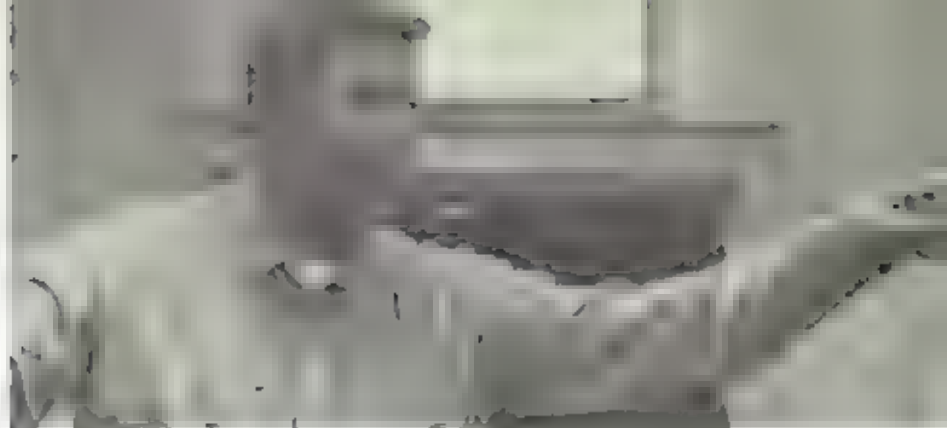

The year was highlighted by the annual Christmas Concert on Dec. 14. Under the direction of Mr. Harold Summerville and Miss Pat Carr, the high school band, in addition to the Junior High eighth grade band, presented traditional and popular tunes. The Glee Club also entertained by performing several carols and a single patriotic song, "America the Beautiful."

The concert band attended the district festival in Sandy Springs in March. The band was rated superior in sight-reading and performance and received a double-plus in appearance. The numbers played were "Die Meistersinger," "Overture Dramatique," and "Days of Glory."

Practice makes perfect and perfection means pride. The concert band labors long to attain this pride in themselves.

Each section of the band practiced daily to prepare themselves for the Dec. 14 performance.

Mr. Harold Summerville is CHS's music department head and is in charge of the marching band in addition to the concert band and the glee club.

Keith McDevitt is only one member of the CHS concert band who endured the difficult practice sessions.

Yellow Jacket Band Performs with Perfection

The CHS band could be seen many an afternoon marching and drilling on the football field in preparation for their half-time shows.

Calhoun High's marching band once again completed another successful year under the direction of Mr. Harold Summerville and his assistant, Miss Pat Carr.

The Jacket Band represented CHS well during the half-time shows of the Yellow Jacket football games as well as when the group participated in area band festivals. CHS's band traveled to Jacksonville State College in Jacksonville, Ala., in order to take part in Band Day there. They also participated in the Tri-State Band Festival at the University of Chattanooga where they competed with high school bands from Georgia, Tennessee, and Alabama.

The Yellow Jacket Band, led by Mr. Harold Summerville, performed at half-time shows and competed with other high school bands in several areas of competition.

Majorettes Take Honors

CHS's majorette corps also had a rewarding year highlighted by their performance in the National Twirling competition, where they acquired a first place rating in military team and a second place in dance twirl. All the girls won superior ratings.

Attending Solo and Ensemble Festival in the spring and the Dixie Twirl-O-Rama in the summer, the girls exhibited their skill in dance, military march and solo routines.

The Jacket majorettes also competed at the twirling clinic at the University of Georgia.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Students Get Vigorous Training in Gym Program

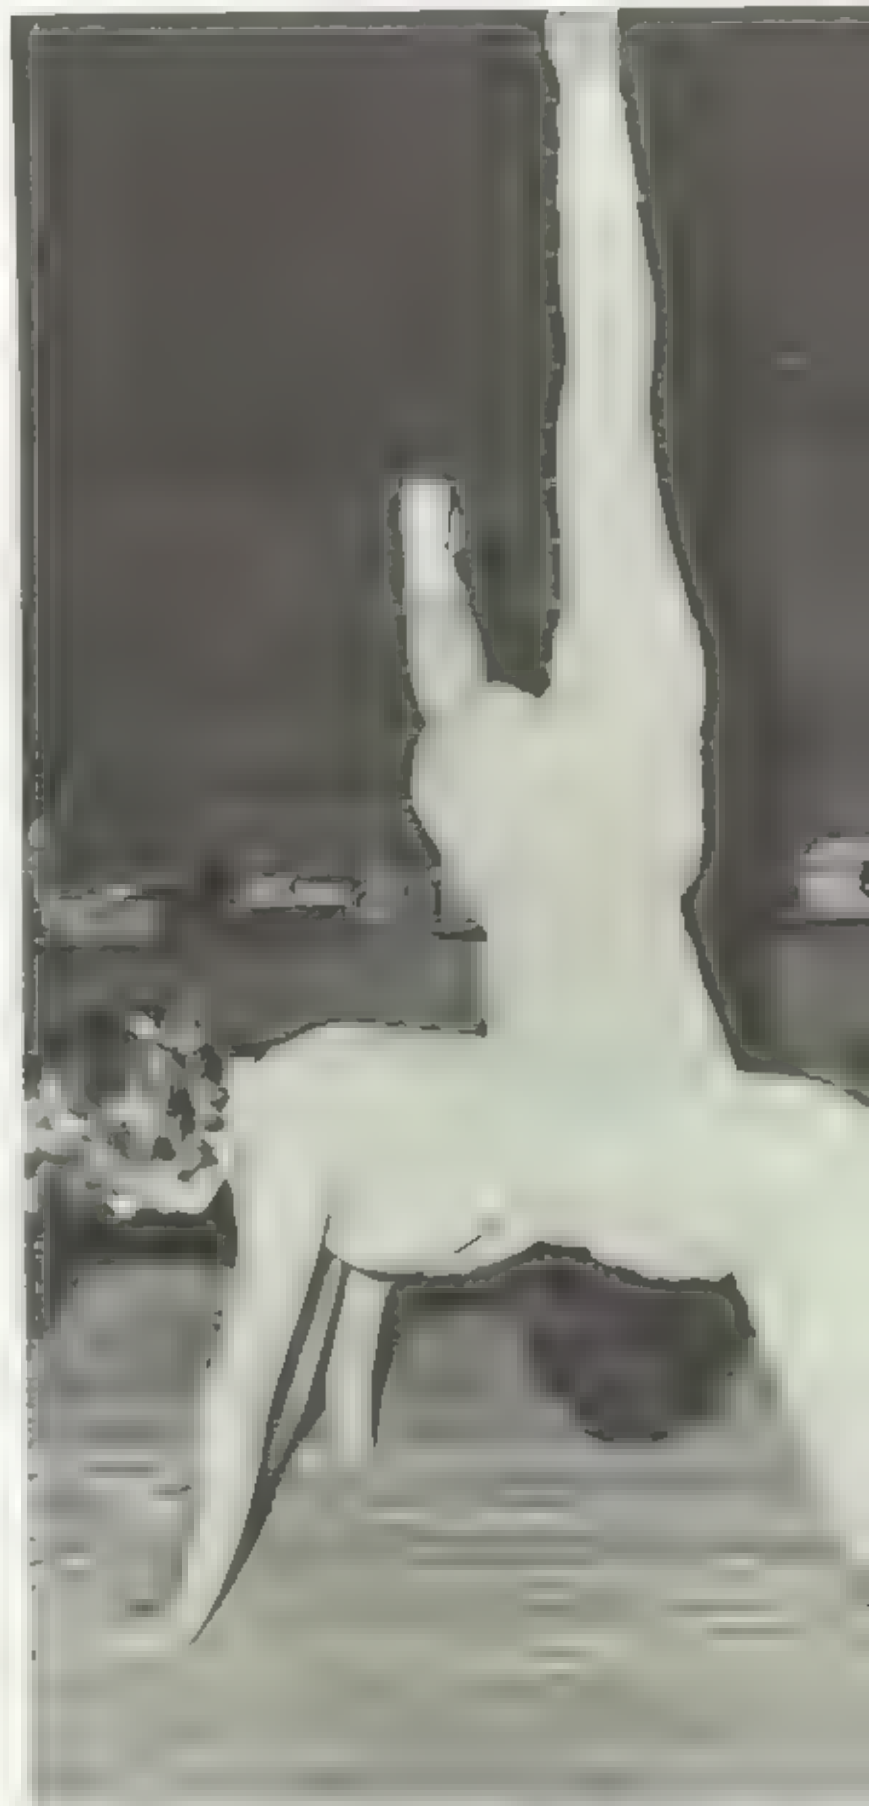

This year's physical education department has provided the students with a wide variety of sports and activities. Football, basketball, softball, tennis, and track are just a few activities included in this year's 1967-68 program.

Mr. Hamp Alexander, Mr. Lynn Walter, and Mr. Charles Faulkner served as instructors for the boys physical education classes.

Mr. Alexander graduated from North Georgia College, where he received a B.S. degree in health and physical education. He is head coach of the boys varsity basketball and baseball teams, and an assistant football coach.

Mr. Walter and Mr. Faulkner both majored in physical education at Peabody College. Mr. Walter received a B.S. degree in education. He is coaching the track and cross country teams. Mr. Faulkner also received a B.S. degree in education. He is the girls varsity basketball coach, and coaches the golf team.

Mrs. Helen Jane McDonald is the instructor of the girls physical education classes. She received a B.S. degree in education at the University of Georgia. Her many hobbies include reading and all kinds of sports.

SPECIAL EDUCATION

Special Education Class Added to CHS Curriculum

Evelyn Silvers, Mrs. R. Childers, and Violet Kinsley, look over several magazines depicting the many points of interest in the state of Georgia

A new and important department which was added to the Calhoun High School curriculum this year was a special education class.

The class is composed of 19 students who work strenuously in several areas, including a work-out program during the summer.

Under the work-out program the student receives special testing, training and counseling by a vocational counselor in addition to his classroom work. The student masters appropriate work skills and habits as part of his school work and receives credit for his school work and credit toward graduation for his work-in and work-out assignments.

The special education class is taught by Mrs. Ruby Childers. Mrs. Childers attended Morris Brown College in Atlanta and Fort Valley State College at Fort Valley, where she obtained a BS in elementary education.

She also attended Knoxville College, Knoxville, Tennessee, and Atlanta University where she did graduate work in special education.

Mrs. Childers enjoys collecting poetry and buttons, along with sewing, cooking and writing short verses. Formerly a fifth grade elementary teacher, this is her first year in special education.

VOCATIONAL DEPARTMENT

Vocational Department Offers Up-to-Date Training

Mr. Q. Hartage, head of the CHS vocational department, relaxes between classes.

The vocational department of CHS is headed by Quentin Hardage, a graduate of Mississippi State University. Mr. Hardage teaches classes in vocational agriculture and a class in pulpwood production.

The vocational agriculture program is designed to provide boys who are interested in agriculture with the latest up-to-date methods of farming. Each boy has a project in a certain field which enables him to put his training to practical use.

Another phase of vocational education which was introduced at Calhoun High School last year is a class in pulpwood production.

Also taught by Mr. Hardage, this class teaches young men the fundamentals of pulpwood production and the correct methods for marketing the pulpwood.

After completion of the course the students will be able to successfully pursue a career in the pulpwood industry.

Mr. Hardage and several boys in the pulpwood class watch a demonstration of the latest model chain saw.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

Five Courses Offer Varied Training to Students

Linda Kirby applies final touches of her latest hair style creation to Joann Hazelwood.

Calhoun Area Vocational School classes, which began with the opening of school, are being held in the new vocational school building on the southeast side of the campus.

One hundred students are enrolled in the five courses offered by the school, according to Ellis Hite, director.

The curriculum includes cosmetology, taught by Mrs. Maxine Hammond, which deals with the care of the hair, skin, hands, and face. The 28 girls in this field are studying and practicing so that they may render service to customers in the near future. The proceeds will be used to pay for new equipment.

Vocational drafting provides training for the specialized building or mechanical drafting trades. Charles Tyner teaches 12 boys how to organize and execute detail and working drawings of equipment from sketches of the designs. The mechanical draftsman specializes in rough drafting sketches of proposed mechanical devices and the consequent drawing of necessary details.

Welding students learn welding skills and background information needed by the modern welder from instructor Harvey Walker. The 15 boys are receiving basic training in the principles, practices and usages of both gas and electric welding in today's industry.

Electrical construction involves a background in electronics with practical applications for local industry. Harold Bennett advises 21 boys in the fundamentals and practices of the electrical trade

Graduates of this course will be qualified to enter an electrical trade as an on-the-job trainee or apprentice. These trainees would assist in the planning, layout, installment, checkout and maintenance of systems in residential, commercial or industrial plants

STUDENT COUNCIL

Active Student Council Assists Faculty and Students

The purpose of the Student Council at CHS is to provide a means of communication between students and teachers. The council is elected by the student body and represents it and its ideas to the faculty of Calhoun High.

Each spring Student Council elections are held. Four senior members, three junior and three sophomore members are elected. Freshman members are elected the following fall. The president of the freshman class becomes a member and two other freshman are elected by the majority vote of the council.

The council sponsors an annual Christmas assembly where it collects toys to distribute to underprivileged children.

Another big project is the publishing of a Student Handbook which contains information on school rules, clubs, and sports schedules. This handbook is distributed free of charge to all students at the beginning of the school year. This service is aimed primarily at helping the freshmen and newcomers to Calhoun High.

The Student Council strives to use its influence to improve the many different aspects of student life.

BETA CLUB

Beta Club Promotes High Standards for Membership

Mr. John Woody, one of the Beta Club sponsors, briefs some of the members prior to the annual Beta Club convention.

James Thomas hands Melissa Whittemore fifteen boxes of doughnuts to sell. This money-making project helped underwrite Beta Club expenses.

Higher standards for membership were instigated by the 1968 Beta Club. To qualify for membership a student must be a junior or senior and have no less than a 90 overall grade average. Formerly the entire ten per cent of the junior and senior classes were admitted as members.

The Beta Club is an acting honor society and service club sponsored by Mrs. Charles Jackson. New members are tapped each year in the presence of the student body of Calhoun High.

Betas have been busy this year with a number of projects. One of the most important consisted of lining off the parking areas of CHS to avoid traffic congestion before and after school. Betas attended the state convention in Atlanta in March.

Active Betas influenced students at CHS toward clean scholarship and appreciation for teachers and studies.

NFL

National Forensic League Adds Competitive Events

Haley Stephens and Jim Purcell study notes before competing in the State AA Debate Tournament.

Scott Croxson and Julie Richards, senior members of the winning state debate team, competed in many other winning contests.

NFL is a national honor society. Members must earn a certain number of points in forensic competition. The division of National Forensic Leagues range from radio-television broadcasting to extemporaneous speaking and oratory.

NFL sponsored an exhibition debate in a CHS assembly program. Debaters from Emory University and the University of California at Berkeley presented the debate on the topic, "Resolved: That the federal government should guarantee an annual cash income to every citizen."

The NFL held the second annual Calhoun Invitational Forensic Tournament. Fifty schools throughout Georgia participated.

Members have participated in many competitive speaking contests. These include Chamblee Forensics Conclave, Central Gwinnett Novice Debate, University of Georgia high school debate, and Barkley Forum debate tournament for high schools in the southeast United States. Debaters also competed in the 7AA debate and won the honor of going to the state contest, where they tied for first place.

GALLERY CLUB

Gallery Club Promotes Art Appreciation by Exhibits

Terry Green and Tony Harper look over an art portfolio prior to a meeting of the Gallery Club

The Gallery Club held its annual clothesline art show this year. All kinds of art were featured — ceramics, pen and ink drawings, water color and oil paintings. Members of the Gallery Club and other interested students were allowed to enter as many works of art as they wished. Various pieces of work were offered for sale.

The Gallery Club also sponsored an art show for the opening of the new Calhoun-Gordon County Library. A dance was given by the club in December. "The Original Blue Ribbon Band" of Dalton furnished the live music. Proceeds from this money-raising project were used to finance the annual clothesline art show.

Established three years ago, the Gallery Club promotes art appreciation in Calhoun High School. Members of the club are not required to have any talent in art, only an appreciation for art.

Gallery Club projects the "Gone With the Wind" theme in the homecoming parade.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll Upholds High Journalistic Standards

George Crowley, Sandra O'Neal, and Gail Bryan, members of the Quill and Scroll, work on the Cherokee Phoenix

Laura Allen, Sharon Nicholson and Susan Bailey use a thesaurus to increase their vocabulary. This is not an uncommon scene on an average workday

Quill and Scroll is an international honor society for high school journalists. CHS is one of the more than 7500 schools holding a charter to Quill and Scroll

Through this select organization, high school journalists learn to broaden their fields of journalism. Quill and Scroll members hold responsible staff positions on The Cherokee Phoenix and The Jacketeer, CHS's yearbook

This year's Quill and Scroll chapter devoted its time to training young members from the Journalism I Club. Each first year student gained valuable knowledge in the art of journalism.

JOURNALISM CLUB

Journalism Club Works to Serve Student Body

The Journalism Club is an organization which supports all activities of the journalism department. This year's club had a large number of first year students

During the year the Journalism Club raised funds by selling yearbook covers and sponsoring a school dance.

The eager young journalists devoted their time to soliciting opinions from the student body in hopes of increasing good relations between the journalism department and the student body. They also presented an assembly program.

Ending the year's busy schedule was an annual autograph banquet honoring students from both the Journalism Club and the Quill and Scroll.

and Improves Publication

Freshness of style, new features, larger and more frequent editions and new advertisements characterized the Cherokee Phoenix this year.

Capably headed by Mrs. Mary Lou Hobgood, advisor, and George Crowley, editor, the staff made numerous changes in the paper in order to better serve the student body of Calhoun High School.

A public opinion poll was started and students and faculty members were interviewed for each edition of the paper. Among the new features added were such things as "Did You Know?", a public information column; cartoons to help illustrate the editorial column, "Letters To The Editor", and a history column which reviewed past CHS newspapers.

One of the things that made these improvements possible was the support of many Gordon County merchants and industries. It was through their help that the Phoenix staff was able to publish a special 8-page Christmas edition. This edition contained many articles and features connected with Christmas and had color art work on the front and back pages.

ANNUAL STAFF

Jacketeer Staff

Portrays the Many Faces of Student Life

Patricia Lawrence seems genuinely puzzled as she counts the money from the annual sales which doesn't seem to balance out

Calhoun High's yearbook staff this year placed particular emphasis on accurately portraying student life in the 1968 Jacketeer. The many facets of an enlarged student body, curriculum, and physical plant also received special attention.

In presenting the total picture at CHS for both faculty and students, the Jacketeer Staff hopes to earn an All-American rating from the National Scholastic Press Association and another Medalist rating from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Besides working long, hard hours after school, several members of the yearbook staff attended workshops during the summer. One of these workshops, held at Brevard College in North Carolina, was the first invitational workshop of its kind in the nation.

The 1968 Jacketeer is the 18th volume and the largest yearbook ever published at Calhoun High School. This year's book contains 188 pages, an increase of eight pages over last year.

Mrs. Mary Lou Hobgood, who assumed new duties this year as advisor of the yearbook, teaches journalism and advises the newspaper staff and journalism clubs.

The CHS Jacketeer has won a number of honors and awards from several journalistic organizations. Shown here are Sandra O'Neal and Sue Thomas holding the Medalist certificate of CSPA, while Fritzl Banley and Sharon Nicholson hold the NSYA certificate giving the Jacketeer an 'A'.

SENIOR TRI-HI-Y

Senior Tri-Hi-Y Girls Maintain Christian Character

The Senior Tri-Hi-Y is a Christian organization composed of senior girls observing their motto: "To create, maintain and extend throughout the home and community high ideals of Christian character."

This year the Senior Tri-Hi-Y girls made money to buy a refrigerator for the CHS faculty. In addition to enjoying themselves, they earned the money by having a dance and a hayride and charging admission. With part of the dues that was collected, refreshments were bought for a slumber party held at a private cabin. Chaperoning the affair were Mrs. Kay Baxter, Miss Alice Clark and Mrs. Bea McCurdy.

The Senior Y's also observed YMCA Week by making posters and joining other Y-Clubs in attending church one Sunday. The club also sponsored an honesty campaign during nine-week exams.

Mrs. Baxter served as advisor of the group, with Mrs. McCurdy as assistant advisor.

Club officers E. Hughes, S. O'Neal, P. Lawrence, J. Webb, M. Whittemore, C. Purcell, and advisor, Mrs. K. Baxter, discuss plans for upcoming meeting.

Kappa Tri-Hi-Y Stresses Promotion of Growth

Kappa members this year improved the school grounds by planting shrubs and flowers. The girls wanted to carry the Kappa motto to its fullest extent, and make the Christian character that evolves around them be extended to the school, with the hope that the students would accept this character with gratitude. Kappa members had Heart Fund Sunday in February which brings results toward a vital cause in the community.

The officers maintained a high standard toward the outlook of the Kappa members, encouraging them to do more things outside of school. They encouraged the girls to help their community at every possible opportunity and to participate in their own church activities.

The Kappa Tri-Hi-Y's motto is mainly used to help the school and community, and in the home the girls brought more Christian character.

As one officer said, "We expect this year to be the greatest one in Kappa's history."

Guiding the girls this year were Mrs. Grace Smith and Mrs. Maxine Hammond.

Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y Sets Record in Community Drive

Jane Henderson and Sharon Bridges ride in car driven by Mrs. Nell Mobley. The car was sponsored by the club in the home coming parade.

The Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y this year set an all-time record in collecting money for its annual Community Chest Drive. Under the direction of Mrs. Nell Mobley, the sophomores collected $216.

Other projects of the group this year involved a loyalty campaign, a teen talk and sending flowers to sick students during Thanksgiving.

There are 61 members in the Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y this year. This club is made up of girls who were in the Freshman Tri-Hi-Y last year.

The club also entered a car in the 1967 Homecoming Parade. It was driven by Mrs. Mobley and was colorfully decorated in fall leaves.

Each month Tri-Hi-Y selects a deserving girl to be the Tri-Hi-Y girl of the month. Jane Henderson and Sharon Bridges were selected girl of the month for the months of October and November.

The year 1967-68 proved to be a busy year for the freshmen participating in the Freshman Tri-Hi-Y. The most outstanding project of the year was the raking of leaves away from the campus in front of the school. This project was supervised by the club sponsor, Mrs. Jane Daniel. About 15 girls participated in the project

The Freshman Tri-Hi-Y prides itself in completing one project every month. Some of these projects included a dance and a hayride

Pure Thought, Pure Words and Pure Actions is the freshman slogan for this year. As a Christian club sponsored by the Y.W.C.A., members rely greatly on this slogan

SENIOR HI-Y

Sr. Hi-Y Expands Knowledge of Civic Government

The Senior Hi-Y enlarged Calhoun High students' knowledge of politics by sponsoring the third consecutive Civic Youth Day. Students running for office went through procedures similar to ones necessary for a real election. All other students went through similar procedures in registering to vote. After voting the chosen students spent the day in their elected offices.

Other projects for 1967-68 included taking fruit baskets to the Cherokee Restorium, sponsoring the bloodmobile, and a dance.

Diana Owens was elected by the members as Senior Hi-Y Sweetheart to ride in their car in the homecoming parade.

Under the direction of Mr. Robert O'Connor and Mr. Ken Sproull, the boys were able to carry out these projects and to build standards to follow. These standards are included in their motto: "To create, to maintain and to extend."

Junior Hi-Y Builds Better Christian Character

David Fox, president, and Dan Fox, vice president, spearhead the club's activities and keep things organized.

The Calhoun High Chapter of the Junior Hi-Y is composed of freshman and sophomore boys. These boys chose three main topics for this year: Clean Speech, Clean Scholarship, and Clean Living.

Under the leadership of the officers and Mr. Philip Heard, advisor, the club has spent its time trying to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. By doing this, it has measured up to the national standards of the YMCA.

FTA

FTA Awards Scholarships to Deserving Students

FTA supports the teaching profession each year by giving scholarships, which range from $75 to $125, to the senior members of the club who have the highest prospective in the field of teaching.

Every year the FTA sponsors money-making projects in order to give these scholarships. This year's projects included a doughnut sale and a dance.

This year four members of the FTA attended the state FTA convention held at Rock Eagle Feb. 1-3. These members include Patricia Lawrence, Eleanor Hughes, Judy Webb, Carol Purcell, and Miss Geraldine Legg, advisor.

To inspire enthusiasm in the profession, FTA presented programs in which young teachers talked about why they became teachers.

FTA convention delegates Eleanor Hughes, Carol Purcell, Judy Webb, and Patricia Lawrence are shown preparing to depart for the convention.

Future Farmers Live Up to Motto Through Work

FFA officers Jimmy Owens and Danny Fite are pictured riding on Joe Moore's 1928 Model A in the homecoming parade. Partially hidden by the shadows is Martha Samples, FFA Sweetheart, and Joe Moore.

"Learning to do, Doing to learn, Earning to live, Living to serve." This is the motto of some 10,000 Future Farmers of America chapters across the country.

The CHS chapter, composed of approximately 50 members, strive hard to live up to this motto through various projects and activities.

The agriculture department is headed by Quentin Hardage, a graduate of Mississippi State University with a BAS degree.

Each FFA member has some money-making project which makes up a major portion of his year's work. This project may be livestock, crops or construction projects. This year the Calhoun chapter participated in the Coosa Valley Livestock show, with five members placing. In March they participated in the annual Coosa Valley Steer and Market Hog Show.

In addition to the livestock events, the FFA also sponsored and entered numerous other events. A team of six boys competed in the livestock judging contest, with Raymond Long winning first place. Other contests included tractor driving, land judging, forestry day, and the FFA sweetheart contest. Martha Samples, a CHS senior, was elected sweetheart for 1967-68 during one of the meetings.

Pleasure and Enjoyment

This year has been a very prosperous and rewarding one for the many members of the Library Club. Throughout the year the club has completed many worthwhile projects.

Led by their advisors, Mrs. Winona Brooks and Mrs. Hope Prater, and Russell Offutt, club president, the members of the club carried forth projects such as the purchasing of a vertical file and a dymo-labeller with funds derived from several money-making projects.

The 180 club members had the greenery put on the redwood posts supporting the balcony.

Their motto, "We serve to further knowledge," was put in effect every day this year. All the members, new and old, strived to practice this motto

"To make the best better." This motto has served the 4-H Clubs for about 65 years, and like CHS, the 4-H Clubs are making their best better.

The Junior 4-H Club, composed of freshmen and sophomores, has 78 members. The Senior 4-H Club, consisting of juniors and seniors, has 62 members. The faculty sponsors are Charles Faulkner, Lynn Walter and Charlie Tyner.

Each year the 4-H Clubs participate in the fields of farming, clothing, and food. Individual projects in these fields offer fun and a chance for the members to achieve personal goals. In the process of working on their projects, the members acquire knowledge in the area they choose for their projects. For the year 1967-68, both the Junior and Senior 4-H Club members are active with individual projects from their chosen area.

Some of the 44 members, who are enrolled in commercial classes have taken on the responsibility to talk, read, and entertain the patients at the nursing home. The members usually visit once or twice weekly.

The most outstanding of all the projects sponsored by the Junior FBLA this year was the carrying out of the Vietnam project similar to the one last year. The club sponsored several doughnut sales. In addition to the annual Dress Right week, the club has sponsored several fudge sales during the lunch periods.

The main overall goal being set by Miss Rachel Ray, junior advisor, and Miss Julia Briscoe, senior advisor, is to prepare the club members for upholding a prominent position in the business world.

FHA

FHA Strives to Increase Participation

The two main objectives adopted by the Future Homemakers of 1967-68 resulted in an enriching year.

These were to help each family member organize his abilities for their fulfillment and to participate actively for family, community, and world improvement.

The clubs sponsored several projects including a doughnut sale, making gifts at Christmas for the hospital patients, a school drive for the local clothes bank, taking baskets of fruit to the Cherokee Restorium, improving the home economics department, and working on the Cancer Drive.

Officers from both clubs planned to have guest speakers on topics that would increase their knowledge of the home, community, and state.

KEY CLUB

Key Club Serves Calhoun Students and Community

Ross Neal, treasurer of Key Club, and another volunteer worker help transport books from the old Gordon County Library to the new library building

This year's Key Club of Calhoun High School worked hard to live up to the '67 club which was one of the top 25 in the state of Georgia. The new sponsor for this year was Coach Ken Smallwood.

The major goal of the Key Club is to serve the school, community, and nation. This was carried out in such projects as painting desks and carrying out a Cerebral Palsy drive.

The social highlight for the Key Club was a semi-formal Christmas dance at which Diana Owens was crowned Key Club Sweetheart. The dance was open to all high school students with no admission charge. Other sweetheart finalists included Susan Bailey, Judi Locklear, Linda Hobgood, Kay Wilson and Sandra Shelton.

Other projects included moving library books to the new Gordon County Library, painting the auditorium and a May Day Festival.

Key Club International strives to build young men into leaders and individuals. One of the major objectives is to provide a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render unselfish service, and to build better communities. The theme of the club this year was "Understanding Through Development."

PEP CLUB, C CLUB

Calhoun High Pep Club Helps Boost School Spirit

A new club — the Pep Club — was formed at C.H.S. this year.

The purpose of the Pep Club is to promote more school spirit, to let athletes know students are backing them, and to create a greater interest in sports.

The new club proved successful during its first year at C.H.S. Each week the club carried out a project, one being to make the banner that went behind the pep club and band during football season. The group also had card sections that accompanied the cheers led by the cheerleaders, as well as showing its support by assisting the cheerleaders in chants, cheers, and songs.

There were 96 members in the club. Those unable to show their support in the pep club during football season were allowed to participate during the basketball season.

Club officers were Sharon Gravitt, president; Diana Owens, vice-president; Joann Nichols, secretary; A. W. Hutstetler, treasurer; Sharon Nicholson, reporter; and Patricia Lawrence, program chairman.

C Club Promotes New Motto

This year Coach Hamp Alexander and the "C" Club tried to develop individual initiative and self-assurance among all the members of the club. The club set as its goal the establishment of Calhoun High as one of the top athletic schools in this area. The club fostered general goodwill and sportsmanship among players, coaches, spectators, and school officials.

The club selected a permanent coat for present and future lettermen. An old gold body with cream sleeves and a block "C" was chosen as the symbol which would exemplify the high character of Calhoun's lettermen.

Members ever strive to uphold their new motto: Winning isn't everything but it sure beats anything coming in second.

Calhoun High's Spanish Club, "El Circulo Espanol", is comprised of approximately twenty-five second year students. After Christmas approximately twenty first year students were chosen and accepted into the club by second year students. Members of "El Circulo Espanol," the Spanish Circle, are required to maintain a "C" average in Spanish. Mrs. P. G. Hill, the sponsor of this year's Spanish Club, resides in Atlanta.

At Christmas, toys, food, and clothing were collected by the club members for an underprivileged family. The proceeds from a dance sponsored by the club were used to sponsor a child at the Scottish Rite Hospital in Atlanta.

Future Scientists Learn Through Lab Experiments

Calhoun's Science Club is composed of seventeen science-minded members this year. The Science Club has chosen as its goal the responsibility of providing each member with the opportunity to do research in any area of science that appeals to him or one combined club project.

As a money-making project, the Future Scientists of America sold booster buttons during football season in cooperation with the athletic department. They split the proceeds between them.

This organization helps shape young science-minded students so that they fit better into this age of technology.

COACHES

CHS Adds Four New Coaches to Coaching Staff

This year CHS boasts one of the finest coaching staffs ever. The coaches helped to instill in the players a sense of pride and a desire to win.

J. Kenneth Smallwood is director of the athletic department and head varsity football coach. He is also a social studies teacher.

Robert O'Connor is an assistant football coach and boys' B-team basketball coach. Mr. O'Connor also teaches social studies.

Hamp Alexander is an assistant football coach, head boys' basketball coach, and head baseball coach. He teaches math and physical education.

Charles Faulkner is head girls' basketball coach, assistant football coach, and golf coach. Mr. Faulkner teaches physical education and driver's education.

Bob Greeson is wrestling coach and an assistant football coach, as well as a math teacher.

John Penland is a boys' basketball coach, 9th grade football coach, and a 6th grade teacher at Line Street School.

Lynn Walter is a 9th grade football coach, track coach, and teaches physical education.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

Football Banquet Honors

CHS's 1967-68 varsity football squad climaxed the grid season on January 13 with the annual football banquet sponsored by the Calhoun Quarterback Club.

The event was held in honor of the football players, cheerleaders, parents, faculty members, Quarterback Club members and their guests. Mr. Riley Gunnels, Calhoun High's most famous football alumnus, was featured as the guest speaker for the evening.

Mr. George Chambers made the special awards to the outstanding Yellow Jacket grid stars. Head Coach Ken Smallwood presented letters to players who had earned letters in previous seasons, and jackets and letters were presented to players who earned them this season.

Cheerleaders were also awarded letters and the senior pins. Mrs. Helen Jane McDonald, advisor, and Miss Alice Clark received gifts from the cheerleaders.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders Inspire School Spirit at CHS

This year the cheerleaders were well rewarded for their strenuous efforts to build school spirit. The organization of a pep club was their biggest project.

Cheers and chants at ball games and pep rallies were led by the cheerleaders, but activities outside this kept them busy. They decorated the goal posts for each home game, advertised the games through use of the bulletin boards, sponsored homecoming, and prepared the decorations for the annual football banquet. To boost school spirit the cheerleaders sponsored such days as Lick Lakeview Day and Western Day.

At Bill Horan's ACA Camp at Mercer University in June, the squad learned new cheers, chants, formations, jumps, and songs.

Long hours of hard practice were applied to perfect the numerous new chants and cheers created by the cheerleaders.

Score's Not Everything

The CHS Jackets opened the grid season with a 23-0 region loss to the North Whitfield Pioneers. The Jacket defense held the Pioneer ground attack, but could not stop three long bomb TD's

In their first home game on Sept. 8, the Jackets fell to Model 13-0. The Jacket offensive was unable to click against the Blue Devil defense. A much closer game was played than the score indicates

The CHS Jackets had an off night as they fell to the Rockmart Yellow Jackets by the score of 28-0 the following week. This was the second Jacket home effort.

On Sept. 22 the Jackets traveled to Lakeview for their second region game. The Jackets scored in the first quarter on a short pass from quarterback Ricky Tamplin to Ross Neal. The tough Jacket defense held the Warriors scoreless for almost four complete quarters. Three times the Warriors were inside the Jacket 10 yard line, and three times the Jacket defense held them out. With three minutes left in the fourth quarter, the score was 8-0 in the Jacket's favor. Then lightning struck twice. The Warriors ran a punt back for a TD, then intercepted a Jacket pass that resulted in another Warrior TD. The final score was 14-6, but the scoreboard meant nothing as everyone knew the Jackets had beaten a much stronger and larger team.

CHS Jackets Overcom

In the Murray County game, the Calhoun offensive was clicking like a well-oiled machine as the Yellow Jackets ran over the helpless Indians 32-6, to rack up their first win of the season.

The Ringgold game was a purely defensive game. The Tigers scored once in the first quarter but after that neither team could score. Then late in the fourth quarter the Jackets were stung by two pass interceptions and a fumble, all three of which resulted in Tiger touchdowns, making the final score 28-0 in favor of Ringgold.

Then the Jackets encountered the Dalton Cata-mounds. In spite of playing a fine game, the Yellow Jackets were unable to stop the future state champions and fell by the score of 41-0.

The Jackets then edged out West Fannin to obtain their second victory of the season. William Mathews kicked his first field goal in the second half which gave the Jackets their 10-7 victory margin.

Both of the Jackets last two games were away and both were against highly ranked teams. The Jackets fell to region champs West Rome 35-0. In their last game of the season they lost to Cartersville 34-3.

B-Team Jackets Compile 2-5 Won, Loss Record

The 1967 edition of the Calhoun JV football team compiled a 2-5 record. The JV's opened the season with a 33-6 loss to the Rockmart Yellow Jackets at Rockmart.

The JV's then traveled to Gordon Lee where they lost 7-6 in a driving rain. Then Calhoun succumbed to the Dalton Catamounts 27-20 after a hotly contested game. The JV's broke into the winning column with a 45-6 romp over Gordon Lee in the second meeting between the two teams. The Calhoun JV's added their second and last win as they skinned past North Whitfield 25-23 at North Whitfield.

The Yellow Jackets then went to Cartersville where they suffered their worst defeat of the year as the Cartersville second string varsity emerged with a 62-0 victory. The Jackets finished up the season with a 35-6 loss to Dalton.

This year's B-team was coached by John Penland and Lynn Walter. Although the season was a disappointing one, the coaches felt that the boys gained valuable experience which can be put to good use on next year's varsity.

The coaches named Robert Chambers as the most outstanding back and Wayne Posey as the best lineman. They felt that both would be valuable additions to next year's varsity.

GOLF

CHS Golfers Swing for Low Scores and Victory

Dalton furnishes the only competition the Calhoun golf team faces in Region 7-AA this year. Outside the region the Jacket golfers face East and West Rome Cedartown and LaFayette. East Rome is considered to be the strongest team the Jacket golfers face this season.

The golf team shapes up well this year with the return of all but one of last year's players. Ricky Burton was the only loss the Jackets suffered through graduation the previous season. The team is composed mainly of sophomores and juniors with only one senior on the team. The golfers are coached by Charles Faulkner, who is also girls' basketball coach.

Last year's team compiled a 6-14 record. This year the team hopes to at least reverse those figures, according to Coach Faulkner. The Jackets have set getting into the state tournaments as a goal for themselves this year.

Coach Charles Faulkner gives golfer Joe Hatton a few tips on correcting his grip and stance.

Many varsity football players are fond of parades, especially when they have a chance to participate in one. Through the entire parade route the players sang the jacket fight song.

CHS students selected Kay Wilson as Homecoming Queen for the year 1967-68. The crowning took place during the half-time of the Calhoun versus West Fannin football game on Oct. 20.

The five finalists, Susan Bailey, Judi Locklear, Pat Sloan, Sue Ellen Harbour, and Kay Wilson, were presented to the student body during assembly the preceding week, and to the public in the annual homecoming parade. The junior class float placed first with their interpretation of the "Old Woman in the Shoe" in the float competition.

Homecoming finalists were escorted on the field by their respective escorts and anxiously awaited the final announcement concerning the next Homecoming Queen.

Miss Mary Ann Wright, Homecoming Queen of 1966-67, then turned over her crown to Miss Kay Wilson, Calhoun High School's 1967-68 Homecoming Queen.

The junior class received many compliments with their prize winning float of the "Old Woman in the Shoe."

BOYS BASKETBALL

CHS Yellow Jackets Display Competitive Spirit

When Coach Hamp Alexander came to Calhoun High as the head coach of the boys' varsity, his motives were clear. He was going to develop a winning attitude at Calhoun at all costs.

Long before many students were even thinking of basketball, Coach Hamp Alexander and assistant Coach John Penland were putting the young cagers through the most vigorous training that any team ever received.

By the first game every player was finally tuned and conditioned. Against Adairsville, a class C school, the team worked their hardest, and played their best to prove to their new head coach just how good they were. However, the glow and glory of that game did not vanish. Coach Alexander had fulfilled his purpose and by mid-season every team knew and feared the wrath of the CHS Yellow Jacket boys.

The tournament, which was held at Dalton High's gymnasium, found the Yellow Jackets doing just what was expected of them. The Yellow Jackets faced a very formidable foe. The Ringgold Tigers were tough, but the Yellow Jackets finally downed them 66-63.

The second game of the tournament spelled disaster for the young basketball players from CHS. The West Fannin Yellow Jackets were just a little taller, and a little more experienced. The CHS based team put up a fiery battle. Although their effort was valiant, the CHS boys fell three points short of the West Fannin team.

Coach Hamp Alexander called the performance of this year's team "as fine a performance as he has ever seen." Through the season the Jackets had fought an up-hill battle against tough opponents like Ringgold and West Fannin.

Despite the loss of five Yellow Jackets through graduation, the cagers were able to have a phenomenal record of 16 wins and eight losses. This record was coming straight from a five-win, 22-loss record.

Many boys will return next year to a better chance at the title. The cagers will lose only one player through graduation, Robert Wilkey.

Junior Varsity Gains Valuable Playing Experience

Steve Carroll, Junior forward, goes after a rebound as the JV's lose to the Dalton Catamounts.

The Calhoun High B-teams had an excellent season this year. While most schools do not concentrate on B-team, Calhoun feels this is one of the most important phases of basketball.

This year's boys' team compiled a record of ten wins and five losses. As indicated by their performance, many of the players who could not make the varsity in their sophomore year will be ready for next year.

Spearheading the boys this year was Michael Wilbanks, a sophomore, who racked up a total of 150 points. Followed by Wilbanks was Greg Causby, another sophomore, with 132 points. Darryl Elder followed Causby with 121 points. Hank Chitwood, Ricky Tamplin, and Steve Carroll had 82, 58 and 58 points respectively.

The B-team girls also had a fine season. They, too, will be a big contributor to the varsity next year. Two twin sisters, Mary and Martha Thomas, will be expected hopefuls for next year's varsity.

Their Abilities as Cagers

Forward Diane Bearden drives in for a lay up, as the Jackettes lose to the Ringgold Tigers in their last game of the season

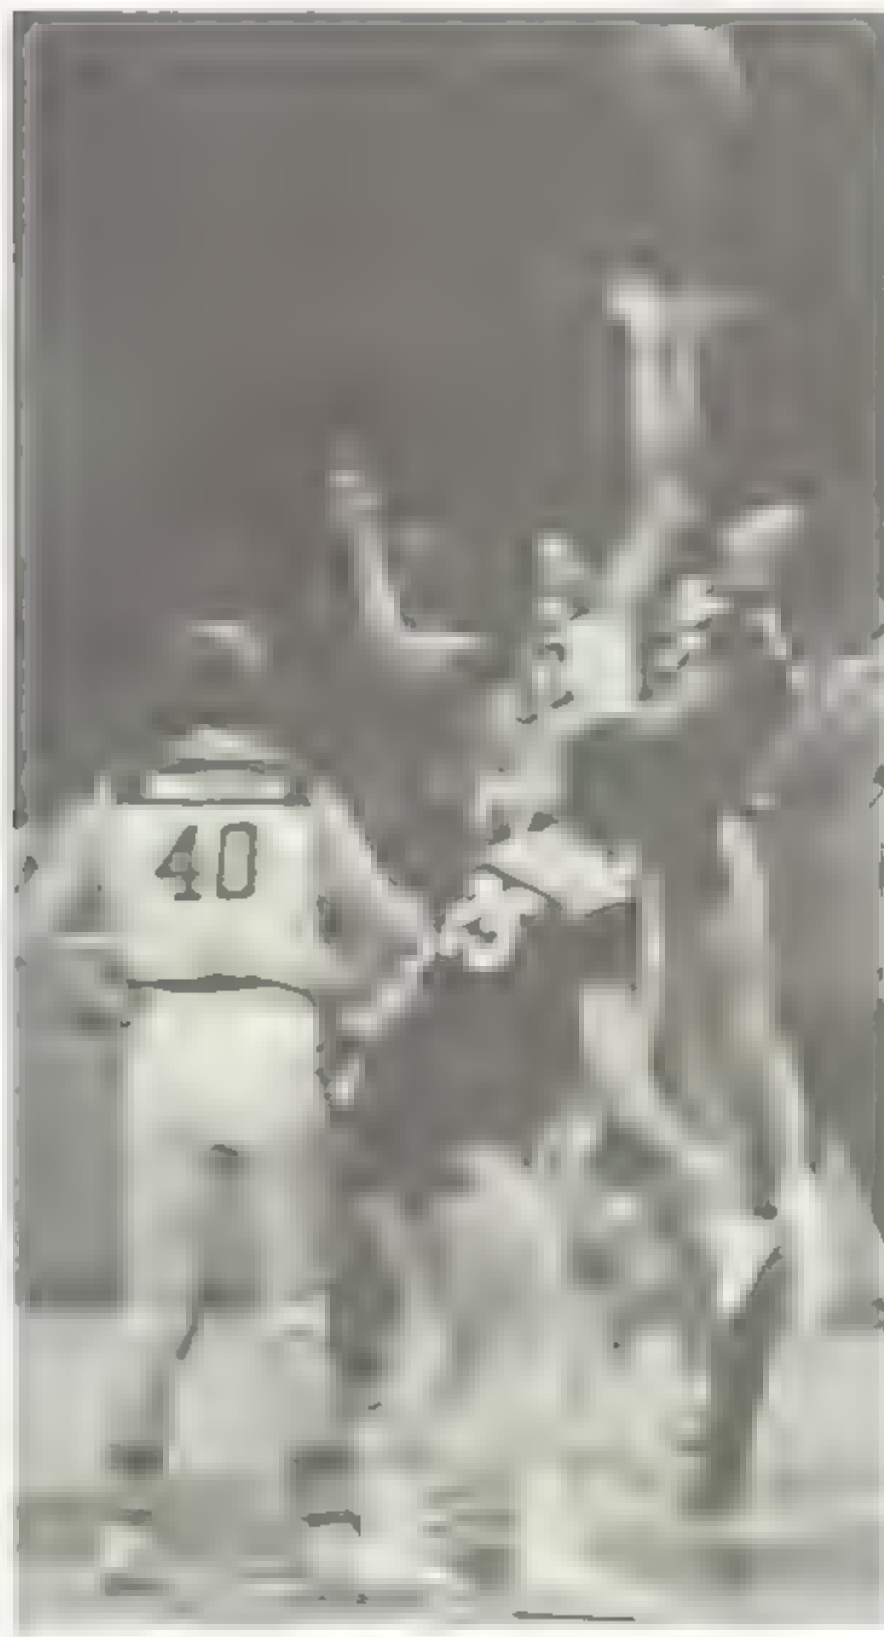

Although the Jackettes were in a rebuilding year and were fielding a fairly young team, they managed to compile a 17 and 10 record for the season. The Jackettes went to the semifinals in the Region 7-AA tournaments before they lost to the Ringgold Tigerettes in a hard fought game by a heartbreaking four points.

The Jackettes won their first five games in a row before losing to Ringgold. The Jackettes were then plagued by injuries and lost two out of their next three games. However, they came roaring back to beat Fairmont and Dalton, and to avenge an earlier defeat by beating the West Fannin girls, before dropping a return match to the Red Bud Cardinals.

The Jackettes then hit a cold streak as they lost three out of their next five games. The Jackettes lost to Murray County, beat Dalton, lost to North Whitfield and Ringgold, and ended the season with a win over Adairsville.

The Jackettes also played two unscheduled games against the Pickens County girls. The Jackettes split with the Lady Dragons in these games, with each team winning one.

Diane Bearden takes the opening tip off as the Jackettes lose to the Ringgold Tigerettes in the Westside Christmas tournament

Jackettes Fail in Bid for Region Championship

The Jackettes also competed in the West Side Invitational Christmas Tournament. The Jackettes won their first game against the North Whitfield Pioneers, but they were unable to stop the Ringgold Tigers' well-oiled offense as they lost by four points in the semifinals.

Much of the Jackettes' success this year rested on the fine defensive unit. The Jackettes had great depth in their guard positions as well as one of the best first string set of guards in the region. This first string guard unit was composed of Roxanne Smith, Retha Smith, and Janice Russell. Backing them up were Debbie Locklear and Sandra Williams.

The Jackettes also had a fine offensive unit. This unit consisted of the two juniors, Diane Bearden and Charne Butler, and one senior, Louise Galloway. Charne Butler was one of the leading scorers in the region.

Outstanding forward Charne Butler drives in for a two point field goal in a losing effort against the Ringgold Tigers

A number of the Jackettes take a well deserved break during one of the Jackette's practice sessions as the Jackettes get ready for the region tournament

Members of the 1968 Jackettes are: FIRST ROW: C. Roberts, manager; J. Russell, L. Galloway, C. Butler, D. Bearden, D. Roach, L. McDonald.

Coach Lynn Walter, sporting a pair of crutches, drills two members on the basic track fundamentals

Calhoun's 1968 Jacket track team was coached by Mr. Lynn Walter and fared well in various field events.

Among the many formidable foes faced this season were North Whitfield, Cartersville, Rockmart, Berry Academy, East Rome, Pepperell, Gordon Lee, West Rome, Murray County, Coosa and Pickens County.

Robert Wilkey set a new school record in triple jump of 40 feet 2 inches, breaking his previous records of 38 feet 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches and 37 feet 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches. At the April 27 meet in Rome, the mile relay team of James Thomas, Johnny Harkins, Robert Chambers, and Larry Mashburn bettered their time by running a 3:38-4.

At a recent meet at Berry Academy, the track team placed second. Johnny Harkins ran the 220 in 23.3 to set a record.

The '68 season proved successful for the cinderman and CHS was well represented.

Once around the track and track members are ready for a nice hot shower

Track team members run almost every afternoon, so seeing them running on a cold windy day is not unusual

Each player regains his form he lost during the off-season. Loyd Defoor, pictured above, takes his turn in the batter's box

Michael Gilbert, one of the two southpaws on this year's roster, loosens his arm before batting practice

Danny McBee gets the ball two strides ahead of Rusty Langston. Prior to the regular season each player goes through fundamental basics such as this

Great Promise for a Successful Year

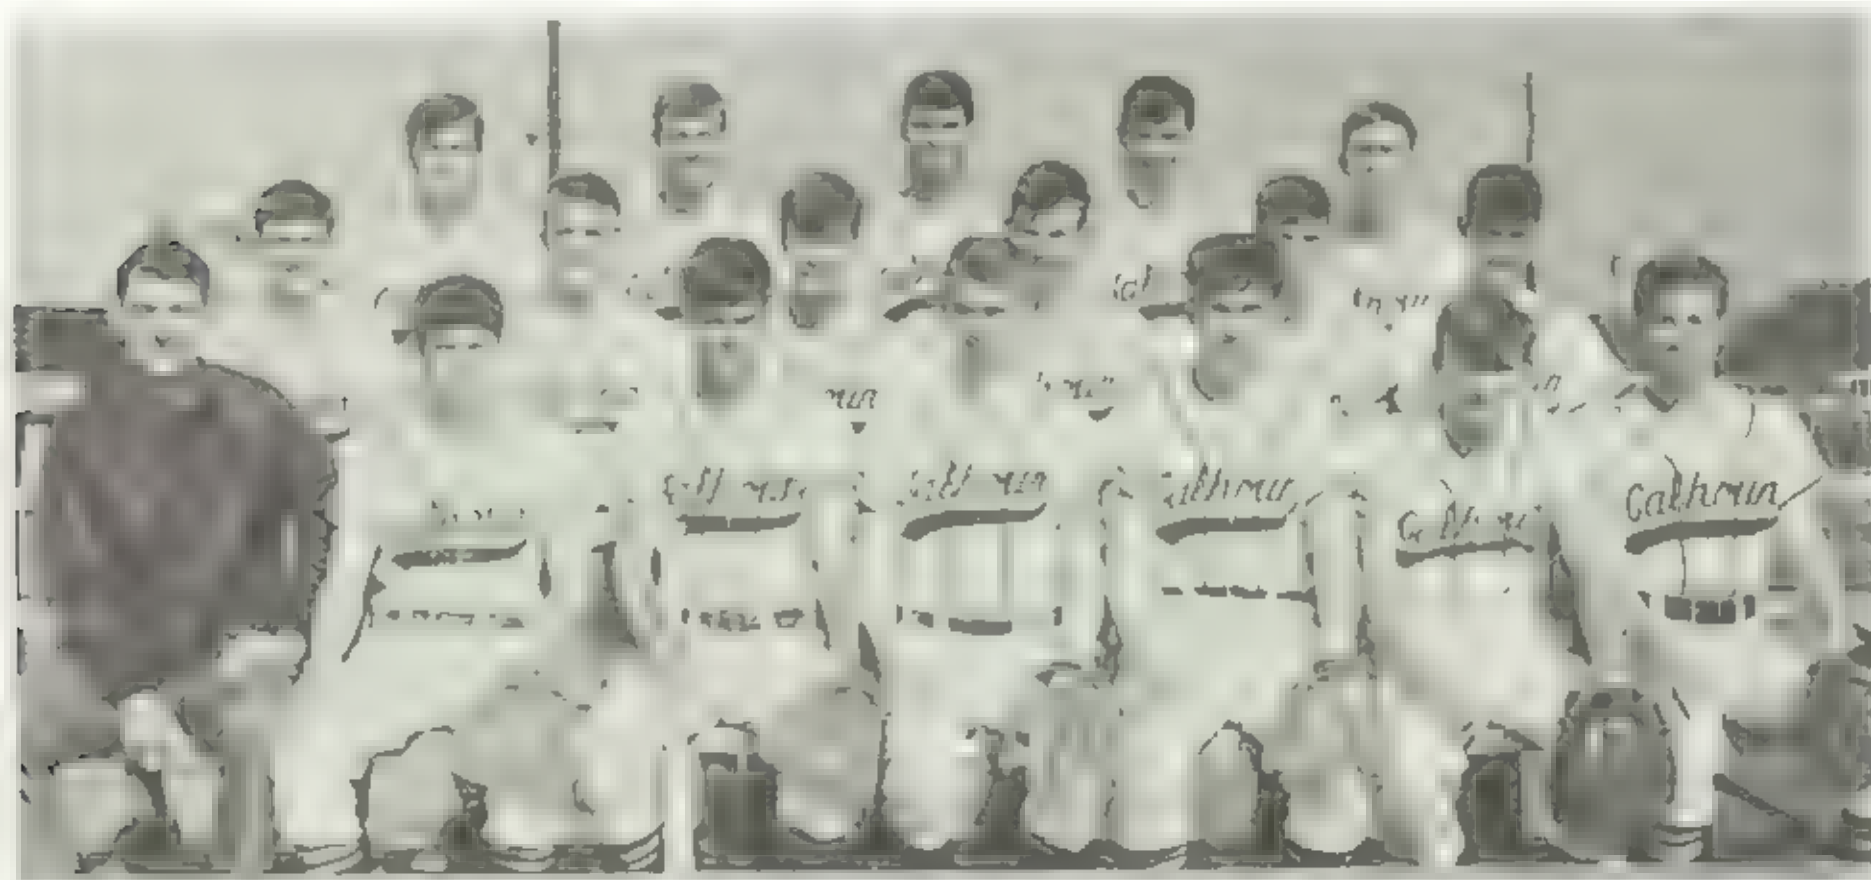

The basis of any defense is the ability to make the double play or turn-killing. Here Charles Walraven and John Dean try their hand at it.

CHS's 66-67 baseball team took charge of the 7-AA region and never relinquished it. The play-offs started the same way as the regular season had. However, the Yellow Jackets' wings were clipped by Walker High and the diamondmen were forced to be content with 7-AA region champions.

This season promised great success for the Jackets. Five starters returned to the field this year. They were Charlie Walraven, short-stop; Danny McBee, first baseman; Loyd Defoor, catcher; Julian Jones, pitcher and outfielder, and Jimmy Black, second baseman and pitcher.

Jimmy Black was the only starting right-hander to return. Vaughn Robbins and Michael Gilbert, both southpaws, returned to mound action this year. Overall the battery department lost the services of Jerry Bearden, pitcher and Jerry Miller, catcher. Both Miller and Bearden graduated.

TENNIS

CHS's Netters Again Strong in Region Contention

Carol Purcell awaits the ball during an intersquad game, as the Jacket netters prepare for their opening game.

Beginning with formal practice in late February and culminating with the Region Tourney on April 24 and 25, tennis constitutes a major sport in CHS's spring activities. The 1968 schedule features such opponents as Rome, Dalton, Cartersville, and Rockmart.

Netters Jack Hayes, Steve Dobson, David Dobson, and Tram Lance returned from the 1967 boys' team to fortify this year's edition.

Martie Richards, Eleanor Hughes, and Carol Purcell, returning girls, supplied the foundation for the 1968 girls' squad.

Coach Phillip Heard took over the coaching duties from Coach Lynn Walter this year. He continued the fine tradition of Calhoun High tennis team.

Calhoun High School added a new sport this year, wrestling. The wrestling team was coached by Coach Bob Greeson.

Coach Greeson concentrated on building up a team for next year's season rather than try to compete fully this year. Therefore, seniors were not eligible for the team. Since the wrestling team was a newly-formed branch of the athletic department, pictures were not available this year.

Senior player Eleanor Hughes practices serving the ball in order to be ready for the girls' doubles.

KNEELING: J. A. Wright, T. Lance. FIRST ROW: S. Galman, E. Hughes, C. Parcell, M. Reese, and M. Smith. SECOND ROW: M. Richards, S. Dobson, J. Hayes, D. Dobson.

Sophomore player Tram Lance gets in some hard practice as he charges forward to meet the ball.

Joyce Ann Wright returns the opposing team's spike as the Jacket netters open their season.

AMERICAN LEGION

For God and Country we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: "To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate one-hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the great wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state, and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good-will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom, and democracy; to consecrate our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness."

In addition to the ideals contained in the constitution the Paul Gwin Post, Number 47 participates in as many community projects as possible. Some of these projects have been: assisting the high school both financially and physically and providing a ball field so that all young men may have the opportunity to participate in the national pastime; providing Campbell Hall for speeches, dinners, and other social events; and contributing food to approximately 100 families during the 1967 and 1968 Christmas season.

Seniors Reminisce as Annual Recalls Memories

We have tried to capture in this year's edition of the Jacketeer a few of the material memories of Calhoun High School. But many of the rewarding experiences that we have had at CHS are only ghosts of these pages. We see the highlights of the game, but only in the mind's eye will we ever be able to see the good times we had with our friends afterwards. We hope that this book can kindle the dying embers of your memory.

If you can look through this book and find a picture of one person, and remember perhaps kindness, generosity or happiness, then we have done our job. There will be many people who will influence us during our lives, but if you can use this book to remember one person who made you happy or built up your spirit, then we have done our job.

Many factors change our lives, Perhaps we will never again be the people we were in high school. But we have gotten out of CHS just what we have put into it. Many seniors who graduate this year will feel nothing for this school. It has been said that beauty unloved is beauty unseen. Only in our later lives can the beauty of Calhoun High School be seen. We can already be proud to have been a part of this school but we must work to make CHS proud of us.

Eddie

I will always remember you as one of my best friends. I will never forget having EC with you. I think you are a pretty good boy (sometimes)

Don't forget ~~get~~ me in the Marines

Your friend

Junior Thompson

Best Wishes
Good Luck
Love
Shirley S.

Your a good Friend
Lots of Luck.
Quanta McDougle

Eddie
Its been fun
going to school with you, you're a great boy. Best of Luck
in the future
W.C.

Eddie,
You are
A nice boy.
But sometimes you
are pretty dumb.
But you are kinda sweet
(sometimes)

Phyllis.
